

After the Storm

After two terrible days the storm finally came to an end. The wind had whistled through the sails. The waves had crashed against the hull. The sea water had seeped inside the ship. The Greedy Minnow had nearly crashed onto some rocks. The ship was damaged, but at least it was still floating. (They could have been at the bottom of the sea!) They had made it! But where was the crew?

Complete these sentences using the appropriate prepositions from the pieces of wood below:

under in behind below on above by beside

- 1 When the storm came to an end Captain Starling was still at her post the ship's wheel.
- 2 Stragglebeard was so scared he hid a barrel.
- 3 Barnaby crawled out from the sail.
- 4 Egg opened the hatch because he went deck.
- 5 Mister P sat on the yardarm the captain.
- 6 One hen was sitting the railing and another was the cannon.
- 7 Where was the third hen sitting?

Extension

Write sentences to show where the three seagulls have landed.

Complete these sentences using the appropriate prepositions from the pieces of wood below:

under

in behind

below

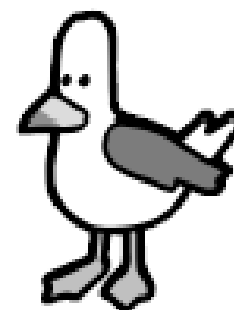

on

above

by beside

- 1 When the storm came to an end Captain Starling was still at her post the ship's wheel.
- 2 Stragglebeard was so scared he hid a barrel.
- 3 Barnaby crawled out from the sail.
- 4 Egg opened the hatch because he went deck.
- 5 Mister P sat on the yardarm the captain.
- 6 Write three sentences to show where the hens were sitting.

Extension

Write sentences to show where the seagulls have landed.

Name: _____

I can use prepositions.

Complete these sentences using the appropriate prepositions from the pieces of wood below:

under

in behind

below

on

above

by

beside

- 1 When the storm came to an end Captain Starling was
- 2 Stragglebeard was so scared he
- 3 Barnaby crawled out from
- 4 Egg opened the hatch because he
- 5 Mister P sat on the yardarm
- 6 Write three sentences to show where the hens were sitting.
.....
.....
.....

Extension

Write sentences to show where the three seagulls have landed.

