

Success Criteria - Alfie's Journal Entry

As you write Alfie's journal entry, refer to the list below to ensure you have included the relevant features:

- Include a date at the top of the journal entry
- First person (I, we, my, mine, our, ours)
- Quite informal (although you should still be using ambitious vocabulary)
- Use time connectives (this morning, after that, before long, at first, in the meantime, at that moment)
- Appropriate tense
  - Past tense to describe events on the island,
  - Present tense to describe how you are feeling now,
  - Future tense to share your worries and concerns about Lucy.
- Share thoughts/feelings
  - How you felt on the island,
  - How you felt about the actions of your dad,
  - How you feel towards Lucy.
