

I can select suitable conjunctions for a sentence.

Choose a conjunction to complete the sentences so that they make sense.

*The smelly dormitory was packed _____ there were 7 other soldiers sharing it with me.

*The cracked oyster shells scratched my gums _____ they made them bleed.

*As quickly as I could, I polished the armour _____ the Centurion paced around the room.

*I didn't stop polishing my armour _____ I could see my face in it.

*My arms felt heavy like lead _____ they were so tired.

*Luckily, I passed my inspection this time _____ I got a tasty treat.

*I marched as quickly as I could _____ my heavy armour clanged and dug into my skin.

*I had to crawl on my hands and knees _____ I was so exhausted but I finished the march.

*I felt my head begin to pound _____ another soldier whacked me with their sword.

*I felt so relaxed _____ the slave massaged the olive oil into my skin.

*and

*but

*so

*because

*when

*until

*while

*as

You may use these conjunctions more than once but try to vary the ones you use.

I can link ideas using conjunctions and add detail to the sentences.

Choose a conjunction to join these two (or three sentences together).

The smelly dormitory was packed. There were 7 other soldiers sharing it with me.

The cracked oyster shells scratched my gums. They made them bleed. They were so sharp.

As quickly as I could, I polished the armour. The Centurion paced around the room.

I didn't stop polishing my armour. I could see my face in it.

My arms felt heavy like lead. They were so tired.

Luckily, I passed my inspection this time. I got a tasty treat.

I marched as quickly as I could. My heavy armour clanged and dug into my skin.

I had to crawl on my hands and knees. I was so exhausted. I finished the march.

I felt my head begin to pound. Another soldier whacked me with their sword.

I felt so relaxed. The slave massaged the olive oil into my skin.

*and

*but

*so

*because

*when

*until

*while

*as

You may use these conjunctions more than once but try to vary the ones you use.

I can use conjunctions to add more to my sentences.

Complete the sentences so they make sense using the conjunction given.

The smelly dormitory was packed because

The cracked oyster shells scratched my gums and

As hard as I could, I polished the armour while

I didn't stop polishing my armour until

My arms felt heavy like lead because

Luckily, I passed my inspection this time so

As quickly as I could, I marched with the troop while

I had to crawl on my hands and knees because I was so exhausted but I felt my head begin to pound when I felt so relaxed when