FOLLOW YOUR DREAMS

'We've got our redundancy money... and the car money. Not a fortune, but enough. What to do with it? I could put it all in the bank, like the others did. But what for? Just to watch it dribble away till there was nothing left? Or, I thought, or I could do something really special with it, a once-in-a-lifetime thing.' (Ch.1)

Michael's father chooses to buy a yacht so the family can sail around the world.

What would you do with the money and WHY?

DIFFICULT DIALOGUE

Can you put the missing speech punctuation back into this passage from Chapter 5?

Americajin? Americajin? American? Eikokujin? British?
Yes, I said relieved to have understood something at last.
English, I'm English.
It seemed a struggle for him to get the words out. No good.
Fire no good. You understand? No fire. He seemed less angry now.
But my mother, my father, they might see it, see the smoke. It was plain he didn't understand me. So I pointed out to sea, by way of explanation. Out there. They're out there. They'll see the fire. They'll come and fetch me.

SUPER SYNONYMS

'Dejected and depressed I may have been, but I was angry too, and gradually this anger fuelled in me a new determination to escape, and this determination revived my spirits.' (Ch.6)

same meaning as another.

Find as many synonyms as can for Michael's feelings in

GETTING ON & FALLING OUT

'There fell between us a long and aching silence. Kensuke never once reproached me for what I had done. He was not angry or sullen at me. But I knew that I had hurt him to the soul. It wasn't that we didn't speak – we did – but we no longer talked to one another as we had before. We lived each of us in our separate cocoons, quite civil, always polite, but not together any more.' (Ch. 8)

Write about a time when you had a falling out with a friend or a member of your family.

What happened and why?
How did you both feel?
How did you sort it out in the end?
