

Engaging Sentences

I can engage the reader with different sentence structures.

The vampire is a dreadful creature: it kills by sucking blood.

Snails are slow: they take ages to cross the shortest of distances.

I was exhausted: I hadn't slept for more than two days.

I was losing my grip on the boy's arm: he was squirming squirming incessantly.

The more it rained, the more depressed I became.

The more the crowd cheered, the more he looked forward to the race.

The more upset she was, the more she cried.

The more he struggled,
the more desperately I
held on to his arm.

Dave was angry - he threw his toys at the wall.

The professor was inconsolable - he wept
for days on end.

King Henry was curious - he ordered the execution of his wife.

The boy was desperate - he beat furiously against my body in an attempt to escape.