To write my own snow poem using adjectives, similes and metaphors.

My Turn

	What is it?	What is it doing? Where?
	blanket cloud Cotton wool stars flour	covering the ground. floating gently across the sky. dancing merrily all night long. drifting side to side

What is... the sun?

The sun is an orange dinghy sailing across a calm sea.

It is a gold coin
dropped down a drain in heaven.

It is a yellow beach ball kicked high into the yellow sky.

It is a red thumb print
on a sheet of pale blue paper.

It is a gold top from a milk bottle
floating on a puddle.

Have a look at my poem. How could I improve each line?

What is ... snow?

Snow is white.

Snow is like a cloud.

Snow is cold.

Use your word bank and your sentences from yesterday's lesson to help you to draft your poem.
