Section 1: GOVERNANCE FRAMEWORK

1. BACKGROUND

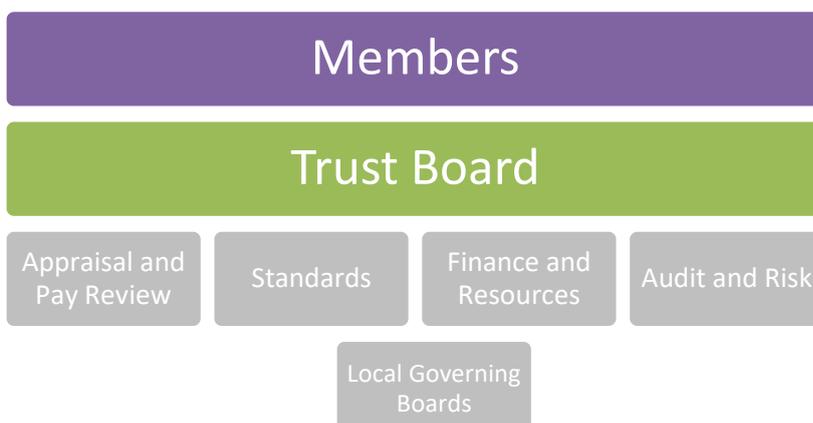

- 1.1 Chancery Multi Academy Trust (CMAT) was formed in April 2018 with a strong sense of moral purpose to provide the best education and opportunities for children and an aspiration to improve the quality of teaching and learning in all CMAT academies. We have created a Trust in which schools support each other to enable their children and staff to thrive through a creative approach to collaboration. There is a strong sense of ownership and belonging in CMAT; this ensures schools benefit from opportunities to collaborate and work together.
- 1.2 Our Board and academy senior leaders have carefully considered the benefits of growth for our current academies and those joining our Trust. We strongly believe that carefully growing CMAT will have significant benefits for the children and staff in both converting academies and our existing CMAT academies.
- 1.3 We have therefore created this document to help joining schools and local governing boards understand their roles and remit within Chancery MAT.
- 1.4 The scheme of delegation sets out how accountability and decision-making works within a multi academy trust. It details which tasks are carried out by the members, trust board, academy local governing boards and the trust's central team.
- 1.5 The scheme of delegation is not designed to cover every eventuality that may occur at every level. Indeed, members of the Trust may interpret it differently and while it does provide a delegated framework and clear guidance, there may be the possibility that further information is required in order to understand who may be responsible or accountable. If a situation occurs in which further guidance is required, the Trust Board and Chief Executive Officer (CEO) are to be consulted.

2 INTRODUCTION

Chancery Multi Academy Trust (the "Trust") is governed by a Board of Trustees (the "Trustees", sometimes referred to as "Trustees") who are accountable to the Department for Education and have overall responsibility and ultimate decision-making authority for all the work of the Trust, including the establishing and running of the academies operated by the Trust. The Trust will delegate responsibility to Local Governing Boards, the CEO, the Central Leadership Team (CLT) and academy Headteachers for aspects of running the academies as it sees fit, however the Trust retains ultimate decision-making authority in all areas (see Section 2: Scheme of Delegation).

The Trustees may review the scheme of delegation at any time but shall review it at least annually. This scheme of delegation may only be amended by the Board of Trustees.

- 2.1 The Trust governance structure complies with the Academy Trust Handbook, the code of conduct (for members, trustees and governors) and the Trust's Articles of Association:

- 2.2 A link trustee for each statutory area of Safeguarding, Special Educational Needs and Disabilities (SEND) and Health & Safety will be appointed. Although accountability for these areas sits at Board level, each LGB shall also appoint link governors for these areas. Attendance of these link governors and trustees is encouraged at regular cross-Chancery meetings. These link areas will be reviewed in accordance with statutory requirements.
- 2.3 Other link trustees and governors shall be appointed as required in accordance with school/trust priorities, and reviewed annually.
- 2.4 This Framework should be read in conjunction with the following documents:
 - Code of Conduct for governors and trustees
 - Link trustee role descriptors
 - Link governor role descriptors
 - Governor Visits Policy and Report form

3 MEMBERS

- 3.1 The Trust is governed by Members constituted under a Memorandum of Association and Articles of Association.
- 3.2 The Members are responsible for:
 - 3.2.1 Approving and amending the Articles of Association

- 3.3 The Members have the power to appoint up to five Trustees, and may remove any or all Trustees.
- 3.4 CMAT aims to have 5 Members with the majority independent of the Board of Trustees. Employees of the Trust are not permitted to act as Members.
- 3.5 Members will hold an Annual General Meeting every financial year.

The Board can authorise additional terms of office provided the trustee's skills and experience complement the Board's requirements. Other senior staff may be invited to meetings as and when required.

- 4.5 The Trust clerk will undertake the clerking of the meetings of Members and Trustees and its committees and ensure that the minutes are included as an agenda item for consideration and approval at the next appropriate meeting. 7 LOCAL GOVERNANCE

7.1 Structure

- 7.1.1 In order to assist with the discharge of their responsibilities, the Trustees have established a Local Governing Board ("LGB") for each of the Academies. The LGB shall be a committee established pursuant to Articles 100 to 104 (inclusive) of the Articles of Association of the Trust (the "Articles").
- 7.1.2 The responsibilities that are delegated to the LGBs are set out in the Scheme of Delegation. All decisions made, therefore, must be in line with the agreed Scheme of Delegation.
- 7.1.3 The CMATB believes that the best results will be achieved when each academy's LGB receives a level of responsibility and autonomy appropriate to its specific circumstances. Where an academy is performing very effectively, achieving good or better outcomes for its pupils, the Trust's involvement in it will be minimal and the LGB will operate with maximum autonomy. The Trust will exercise closer supervision of an academy (facilitated through the Chief Executive Officer) that is judged to be requiring improvement.
- 7.1.4 The LGB has the authority to delegate their functions to sub-committees, run a flat structure or in certain circumstances, delegate to an individual Governor or the Headteacher.

7.2 Membership

- 7.2.1 Members of the Local Governing Board will be known as governors.
- 7.2.2 The Local Governing Board is constituted in accordance with the requirements set out by the Trust.
- 7.2.3 The appointment of governors is delegated to the LGB.
- 7.2.4 Where the Trust Board has significant concerns about a particular academy, including OFSTED gradings, the Trust Board has the power to remove or replace some or all of the local governors.
- 7.2.5 Where an existing academy is deemed to be at risk of failing its pupils, the Trust may exercise the right to reconstitute the LGB and appoint the majority of its members to ensure that the identified weaknesses can be effectively addressed.
- 7.2.6 The Trustees have the right to appoint such persons to the LGB as they shall determine from time to time.
- 7.2.7 In accordance with National Governance Association guidance all Local Governors will serve a 4- year term of office, normally for a maximum of two terms. Any LGB wishing to retain a governor for an additional term(s) must consult with the Board of Trustees stating how the individual's skills and experience continue to meet the needs of the LGB. Alternatively, governors may be recommended to serve on another LGB within the Trust.

7.3 Terms of Reference – please see Appendix 1.6

- 7.3.1 The Terms of Reference for the LGBs can be found in Appendix 1.6.

3.9 Minutes

Attendance at each meeting, conflicts of interests, issues discussed and recommendations for decisions will be recorded.

Minutes of LGB meetings will be recorded and forwarded to the Clerk of the CMATB in sufficient time for inclusion on the agenda and among the supporting papers for the next meeting of the CMATB.

The decisions taken and the reasons for urgency will be explained fully and minuted at the next meeting of the Local Governing Board.

In exceptional circumstances an Extraordinary Meeting of the LGB may be called.

3.12 Link governors

Link governors must be appointed for Safeguarding, SEND, Health & Safety and any other area deemed necessary by the CMATB. A2.5 - LGB Pupil Discipline and Exclusions Committee Terms of Reference

PURPOSE OF COMMITTEE

To carry out the procedures required in respect of pupil exclusion legislation and best practice.

SPECIFIC RESPONSIBILITIES

Exclusions

The Headteacher is the only person with the power to exclude a pupil from the school. In their absence, the most senior teacher has the right to exclude a pupil from school. The Chair of Governors should be informed of the exclusion.

A pupil may not be suspended for an indefinite period: suspension must be for a fixed term or permanently.

Duties of the Headteacher

- i) When a pupil is excluded the parent should be informed immediately and followed by a letter stating the reason for the exclusion - within one school day
- ii) To issue a new exclusion (whether fixed term or permanent) from the date of the expiry of a first exclusion if evidence comes to light that a more severe consequence is appropriate. (A fixed-term exclusion cannot be extended or converted into a permanent one)
- iii) Where a pupil is excluded, the parent of the pupil must be informed that representation about the exclusion can be made to the Pupil Discipline Committee
- iv) Where the Headteacher excludes a pupil for more than 15 days in aggregate in any one term, the head to inform the Pupil Discipline Committee without delay of the period of the exclusion and the reason for it. Similarly, this action should be taken if the exclusion is made permanent;

Duties of the Governing Board/Pupil Discipline Committee

It is the duty of the Pupil Discipline Committee, where they have been informed of the permanent or fixed term exclusion of a pupil for more than fifteen days in aggregate -

- i) to consider whether the pupil should be reinstated immediately, reinstated by a particular date or not reinstated at all;
- ii) to consider the evidence presented in relation to the exclusion, taking a 'holistic view' of the circumstances before considering the actions of the Headteacher;
- iii) in considering the actions of the Headteacher, governors are explicitly required to decide whether the actions were lawful, reasonable and procedurally fair, taking account of the Headteacher's legal duties and any evidence presented at the hearing;
- iv) their decisions on the "civil standard of proof"; i.e. that something more probably occurred than not;
- v) where they consider the pupil should be reinstated, to give the appropriate direction to the Headteacher;
- vi) where they consider the pupil should not be reinstated to inform the parents of their decision. It is the duty of the Pupil Discipline Committee to inform parents of a pupil who has been excluded permanently of their right to appeal against the decision;
- vii) when advising a parent/carer of their rights to appeal to the independent review panel (IRP), in providing details of the role of the SEN expert in an independent review panel, the governing board should explain that:
 - There is no cost to parents for this appointment and;

- Parents must explicitly request a SEN expert in their appeal to the IRP;
- viii) In the event the pupil is reinstated, to agree how governors will ensure the pupil’s effective reintegration;
- ix) To ensure that a note is placed on the pupil’s record;
- x) To remove the name of a pupil who has been permanently excluded from the school admissions register.

In the event that the IRP recommends or directs the Governing Board to reconsider, the governing board must:

- Decide how the Governing Board will meet e.g. will the same governors form the committee / three different governors / the whole Governing Board?
- Meet within ten school days of receiving notice to reconsider its decision by the independent review panel.
- Decide whether to reinstate the pupil;
- If the independent review panel has issued a direction (not recommendation) to reconsider and the governing board does not decide to reinstate the pupil within ten school days of receiving the direction, to pay the Local Authority (LA) within 28 days;
- Agree how governors will ensure the pupil’s effective reintegration in the event the pupil is reinstated.
- Ensure a note is placed on the pupil’s record.

Membership:	All governors, not including the Headteacher, staff employed at the school or Associate Members.
Disqualification:	Any governor with prior knowledge of the incident. (It is suggested that neither the Chair of Governors nor a member of staff, due to probable prior knowledge, should be a member)
Quorum:	Three governors, not including the Headteacher or anyone paid to work at the school.
Meetings:	As required
Chair:	Non-employee to be elected by the committee

A2.6 - Chairs' Forum Terms of Reference

PURPOSE OF FORUM

Chancery Multi Academy Trust has established a Chairs Forum in order to provide a forum for discussion between the Board Chair and the Chairs of Local Governing Boards of each school and allows each of the schools to have a direct route of communication to the representatives of the Trust Board.

The Chairs Forum will meet regularly (usually three times per academic year) which will allow for discussion of matters arising and clear communication to be established.

The LGB Chairs Forum derives its authority from any delegation made by the respective LGB to their Chair (or Vice Chair as the case may be) in respect of any agenda item.

SPECIFIC RESPONSIBILITIES

Terms of Reference

The Chairs Forum will carry out the following key functions and will act to:

- Promote collaboration across the MAT schools
- Share best practice and lessons learned
- Discuss matters appropriate to the respective LGBs and the Trust as a whole
- Ensure that information from the Board is disseminated to each Local Governing Board (LGB)
- Provide an environment for challenge and support between the layers of governance ensuring open and honest discussion on matters of celebration or improvement
- Offer recommendations and provide feedback on areas of consultation requested by the Board
- Coordinate and drive effective Governor recruitment and training.

Membership:	The Chairs Forum will consist of the Chair of the LGB of every school in Chancery MAT; the Chair of the Board of Trustees; the Governance and Compliance Lead and the CEO. A Vice-Chair (or another governor/trustee) may attend in absence of the Chair. Any other members of staff or external professionals will be invited to attend the relevant meeting as required.
Quorum:	The quorum for a meeting of the committee shall be at least two LGB (Vice-) Chairs.
Meetings:	At least two times per academic year.
Chair:	A rolling meeting Chair shall be appointed for each meeting.
Accountability:	Notes of meetings will be available to all governors and each LGB Chair will report back to their governing board by verbal record if required.

Appendix 3: ROLE DESCRIPTORS

A3.1 – Role of a Local Governor

PURPOSE:

To contribute to the work of the governing board in ensuring high standards of achievement for all children and young people in the school by:

- Setting the school's vision, ethos and strategic direction
- Holding the headteacher to account for the educational performance of the school and its pupils
- Holding to account the financial performance of the school and making sure its money is well spent.

ACTIVITIES:

As part of the governing board team, a governor is expected to:

1. Contribute to the strategic discussions at governing board meetings which determine;
 - the vision and ethos of the school
 - clear and ambitious strategic priorities and targets for the school
 - that all children, including those with special educational needs, have access to a broad and balance curriculum
 - the school's budget, including the expenditure of the pupil premium allocation
 - the school's staffing structure and key staffing policies
 - the principles to be used by school leaders to set other school policies
2. Hold the senior leaders to account by monitoring the school's performance; this includes:
 - agreeing the outcomes from the school's self-evaluation and ensuring they are used to inform the priorities in the school development plan
 - considering all relevant data and feedback provided on request by school leaders and external sources on all aspects of school performance
 - asking challenging questions of school leaders
 - ensuring senior leaders have arranged for the required audits to be carried out and receiving the results of those audits
 - ensuring senior leaders have developed the required policies and procedures and the school is operating effectively
 - acting as a link governor on a specific issue, making relevant enquiries of the relevant staff, and reporting to the governing board on the progress on the relevant school priority
 - listening to and reporting to the school's stakeholders: pupils, parents, staff, Chancery Trust and the wider community, including local employers
3. Ensure the school staff has the resources and support they require to do their jobs well, including the necessary expertise on business management, external advice where necessary, effective appraisal and CPD (Continuing Professional Development), suitable premises, and that the way in which those resources are used has impact.
4. When required, serve on panels of governors in line with the Chancery Trust Scheme of Delegation, to:
 - appoint the headteacher and other senior leaders
 - appraise the headteacher
 - set the headteacher's pay and agree the pay recommendations for other staff
 - hear the second stage of staff grievances and disciplinary matters
 - hear appeals about pupil exclusions

A GOVERNOR DOES NOT:

- Write school policies
- Undertake audits of any sort – whether financial or health & safety - even if the governor has the relevant professional experience
- Spend much time with the pupils of the school – if you want to work directly with children, there are many other voluntary valuable roles within the school
- Fundraise – this is the role of the PTA – the governing board should consider income streams and the potential for income generation, but not carry out fundraising tasks
- Undertake classroom observations to make judgements on the quality of teaching – the governing board monitors the quality of teaching in the school by requiring data from the senior staff and from external sources
- Do the job of the school staff – if there is not enough capacity within the paid staff team to carry out the necessary tasks, the governing board need to consider and rectify this

As you become more experienced as a governor, there are other roles you could volunteer for which would increase your degree of involvement and level of responsibility (e.g. as a link governor).

EXPECTATIONS:

In order to perform the role well, a governor is expected to:

- get to know the school, including visiting the school occasionally during school hours, and gain a good understanding of the school's strengths and weaknesses
- attend induction training and regular relevant training and development events
- attend meetings (full governing board meetings and ad-hoc meetings) and read all the papers before the meeting
- act in the best interest of all the pupils of the school
- behave in a professional manner as set down in the governing board's code of conduct, including acting in strict confidence

TIME COMMITMENT:

Under usual circumstances, you should expect to spend between 10 and 20 days a year on your governing responsibilities; the top end of this commitment, which equates to about half a day per week in term time, is most relevant to the chair and others with key roles, such as link governors. Initially, we would expect your commitment to be nearer 10 days a year. However, there may be periods when the time commitment may increase, for example when recruiting a headteacher. Some longstanding governors may tell you that they spend far more time than this on school business; however, it is fairly common for governors to undertake additional volunteering roles over and above governance.

Under Section 50 of the Employment Rights Act 1996, if you are employed, then you are entitled to 'reasonable time off' to undertake public duties; this includes school governance. 'Reasonable time off' is not defined in law, and you will need to negotiate with your employer how much time you will be allowed.

A3.2 – Role of the Staff Governor

Roles and responsibilities

The role of staff governors is to bring a unique staff perspective to the board. Apart from that, it is no different from other governors, and they will help the board carry out its statutory duties.

The role is not to represent staff, nor to be held to account by the governing board, but to operate as part of the governing board to provide strategic leadership and to hold the headteacher to account.

A staff governor is not a 'delegate' of other staff members, and they are free to contribute and vote freely in the best interests of the whole school. The role is not to speak and act in accordance with the wishes of the majority of staff, so the staff governor should not canvas the opinion of staff.

Staff governors are elected by school staff. They cease to hold office when they cease to be employed at the school or when their term of office ends.

Restrictions on the scope of the role

The staff governor:

- Cannot be chair or vice-chair of the governing board (but can chair certain committees)
- Will be party to confidential information and must not share it, especially if discussed in Part 2 (confidential business)
- Can stay for Part 2 of the meeting as long as there is no conflict of interest or discussion around them or their role (or that of any close personal relations)
- Must withdraw and not take part in discussions relating to the appraisal or pay of any school employee, including the headteacher's appraisal. However:
 - This does not apply to the headteacher, who should be involved in discussions about staff pay but not about their own pay
- Cannot be a parent governor if they work at the school for more than 500 hours in a 12-month period
 - This is explained in the DfE's statutory guidance (page 20) and in parts 3 to 5 and schedule 1 of The School Governance (Roles, Procedures and Allowances) (England) Regulations 2013.

The staff governor must understand the rules on declaring conflicts of interest and withdrawing from meetings.

Link governor role

The staff governor can be a link governor unless there is overlap between their role as a staff member and the link governor role. If, for example, the designated safeguarding lead is a staff governor, they should not be the safeguarding link governor.

The governing board should make sure that all categories of governor, and not just staff governors, are filling core link governor roles.

Staff grievances

Staff governors are not responsible for bringing grievances from another member of staff to the attention of board; they should be referred to the trust's grievance policy. This will outline the correct operational procedure for dealing with a grievance.

Staff governors should become familiar with the grievance policy so they can explain it to staff members who approach them for help.

If many members of staff approach them with the same grievance – workload concerns, for example – they should first raise the issue with the senior leadership team.

If the staff members still feel that the issue hasn't been addressed, the staff governor could ask the clerk to add an item to the agenda for discussion at the next governing board meeting. The staff governor should submit a paper giving details of the issue in advance.

Make sure other staff understand the role

If staff governors are frequently asked by other staff members to go beyond their role, they could produce a poster for the staff noticeboard to:

- Introduce themselves as the staff governor
- Explain what their position entails
- Ask for suggestions for topics to bring before the governors
- Make people aware of the staff grievance policy

Staff governor absence from meetings

If they are absent from a meeting, no-one else may speak or act on their behalf. This is the case for all governors.

They may be able to participate remotely.

Find out about attendance at meetings, and how absences are dealt with by the board.

The board can appoint another member of staff as a co-opted governor. This could, in the absence of the staff governor:

- Help the governing board keep a staff perspective
- Ensure good communications with school staff

But it should not be seen as a way for the role to be shared.

Remember, the number of co-opted governors who are eligible to be elected or appointed as staff governors must not, when counted with the staff governor and the headteacher, exceed one-third of the total membership of the governing board (as per page 18 of the DfE's statutory guidance).

A3.3 – Role of the Link Governors

All Chancery Local Governing Boards (LGBs) must have link governors for Special Educational Needs and Disabilities (SEND), Safeguarding and Health & Safety but may also have links for other key areas in the School Development Plan which may change annually.

The link governor is a source of additional information, support, challenge and scrutiny for the LGB and increases the profile of the governing board within the school and across Chancery trust. The development of good working relationships, effective communication and mutual trust is essential to this role.

Link roles do not remove the board's collective responsibility. The governing board should ensure that any area assigned to a link governor is covered on the agenda of full governing board meetings as appropriate, so that all members of the governing board remain informed of the key issues, strategy outcomes and areas for development, and participate in any relevant decision making.

The link trustees of Chancery Trust can complement the work of the link governors or have a different area of focus. What they should not do is duplicate the work of the LGB or link governor.

If numbers allow, link governor roles could be shared to support succession planning and prevent relationships becoming too 'comfortable'. The Governance and Compliance Lead should be notified as and when link governors change to ensure communications are directed to the correct person.

Link governors must complete records of visit forms after each visit and report back to the full governing board, as per the Visits Policy.

A3.3.1 Link Governor for Safeguarding

Purpose of role:

One of the most important duties that a governing board fulfils is to ensure that their school or trust is creating safe environments for pupils through robust safeguarding practices.

The appointed governor/trustee should take the lead on safeguarding. However, the governing board retains collective responsibility for making sure that safeguarding procedures are properly followed. See NGA Guidance 'The Governance of Safeguarding' for more information.

Safeguarding link governor duties

1. Working with the Designated Safeguarding Lead (DSL)

The designated safeguarding lead (DSL) is a senior member of the school's leadership team who takes lead responsibility for safeguarding and child protection. The safeguarding governor is the board's main point of contact with the DSL and so they should:

- build an effective relationship with the DSL that allows for appropriate support and challenge
- arrange monitoring visits with the DSL to learn about the school's context and how this influences the approach to safeguarding
- through discussion with the DSL (and other stakeholders within the school community), understand the school's safeguarding strengths and areas for development
- meet with the DSL termly to discuss (without specific pupil details) any safeguarding incidents; conversation should be around the suitability of policies and whether any amendments are necessary
- use meetings and visits with the DSL to monitor progress on any strategic safeguarding priorities
- ensure the DSL has received the training they need and is well supported to carry out their role

- talk to the DSL about staff safeguarding training, seeking assurance that staff are up to date with policy and practice and know what steps to take if they have concerns about a pupil

2. Understanding how safeguarding works in practice

The safeguarding governor should be aware of the legal duties that schools, and their governing boards, must comply with to keep pupils safe. It's also important to build an understanding of how safeguarding procedures work in practice. This should focus around:

- reading and understanding Keeping Children Safe in Education (KCSiE), the DfE's statutory safeguarding guidance (this is a requirement for all governors and trustees)
- building a knowledge and understanding of the school or trust's safeguarding policies and procedures, ensuring these are effective, regularly reviewed and updated
- observing (through arranged visits) how the culture of safeguarding is working within the school
- understanding how safeguarding is built into the school curriculum and how pupils are taught about staying safe (including online safety)
- using any safeguarding assessments or audits (sometimes conducted by local authorities) to help ascertain the robustness of safeguarding procedures and systems
- using data (often supplied within DSL safeguarding reports) to spot trends, for example, absence rates for looked-after children

We recommend that all governors undertake safeguarding training such that everyone has the knowledge and information needed to perform their functions and understand their responsibilities.

3. Report back to the board and keep them up to date

As the board's specialist on safeguarding and child protection, the safeguarding link governor should:

- stay up to date on relevant guidance and policy (including local guidance), ensuring the board are made aware of any changes to their safeguarding responsibilities
- report to the governing board following monitoring meetings with the DSL and any visits/interactions with staff and pupils
- ensure safeguarding is given suitable coverage and prominence within the board's strategic discussions
- feed in to governing board discussions, ensuring that decision making is based on a sound understanding of both the legal requirements and the school/trust procedures and culture
- ensure that the results of safeguarding audits are shared with the board and any concerns addressed
- support the board's oversight of the school's record of pre-appointment checks (the single central record); often this oversight comes from DSL reports to the board (not through the board directly administering the record).

Safeguarding: sample questions

Health warning: these questions need to be used appropriately and may be asked by any governor, not just the Safeguarding link. You need to consider the best time and place to ask any questions. It is absolutely not intended that these questions should be handed over to the DSL/headteacher and an answer to each one sought. This is not a test for school leaders, but a tool to help governors.

1. Priorities and resources

The appointed governor should take the lead on monitoring SEND provision at a strategic level. However, the governing board retains collective responsibility.

SEND link governor duties:

1. Working with the SENDCO

The special educational needs and disability co-ordinator (SENDCO) is the lead member of staff for SEND within the school, with responsibility for overseeing the day-to-day operation of the SEND policy and co-ordinating provision for children with SEND. SEND: sample questions

Health warning: these questions need to be used appropriately and may be asked by any governor, not just the SEND link. You need to consider the best time and place to ask any questions. It is absolutely not intended that these questions should be handed over to the SENDCO/headteacher and an answer to each one sought. This is not a test for school leaders, but a tool to help governors.

Purpose of role:

Health and Safety in schools is governed by the Health & Safety at Work Act 1974 and the associated Management of Health and Safety at Work Regulations 1999. Chancery Multi Academy Trust (as the employer) is ultimately responsible for health and safety at the schools, however the responsibility for monitoring activities to ensure compliance with locally set policies and procedures has been delegated to each LGB.

The Health and Safety link governor will need to ensure they keep the role strategic. They are not expected to carry out health and safety checks or inspections but instead hold school leaders to account for completing them.

H&S link governor duties

1. Working with the school's H&S lead

Although the Headteacher is ultimately responsible for the day-to-day management of the school's health and safety policy, schools will usually have a health and safety lead (typically the Site Manager or School Business Manager).

The H&S link governor will support the H&S lead, and assist the governing board to have a better understanding and knowledge of health and safety within the school.

The link governor for H&S should engage with the H&S lead at least twice per year in order to:

- Develop an effective working relationship that allows for appropriate support and challenge.
- Conduct monitoring visits to learn about the school or trust's context and needs.
- Discuss how policies are applied and whether any changes are needed.
- Seek assurance that staff receive effective and up to date training.

- Ensure relevant external reports and audits are brought to the attention of the LGB.
- Keep the LGB informed of any health and safety issues.
- Report to the LGB on the effectiveness of the health and safety policy.

A3.4 – Role of the Link Trustees

A Link Trustee is appointed by the Board to a specific school or focus area. These areas could comprise statutory responsibilities of the Trust Board (including SEND and Safeguarding) or could be an area of specific short-term focus for the Trust Board.

The Link Trustees can complement the work of the Link Governors or be in a totally different area of focus. What the role should not do is duplicate the work of the LGB or link governor. Link trustees will report back to the Trust Board as and when requested by the Board.

The Link Trustee is a source of additional information, support, challenge and scrutiny for the Trust Board and LGB of the schools. It also increases the visibility of the Trustees within, and across, Chancery schools. The development of good working relationships and mutual trust across the schools is essential to this role. Effective communication is vital to success.

Link trustee roles will usually be reviewed every two years to support succession planning and impartiality whilst allowing trustees sufficient time to adapt to the role.

Link Trustees for focus areas will:

- Invest time in appropriate learning and development by attending relevant training and encourage local governors to do the same.
- Ensure appropriate training and resources are provided by the trust to support link governors.
- Keep up to date with statutory guidance and any advice issued by the Local Authority relating to their area.
- Meet with the link governors and/or relevant school staff at least twice per year.
- Ensure link governor visits with key school staff are taking place and being reported to the LGB.
- Ensure link governor visits have a strategic focus and data is anonymised.
- Consult with link governors to monitor effectiveness of relevant Trust policies.
- Liaising with senior executive leaders to identify trends across the trust from external and internal audits and reports; benchmark performance against other trusts; ensure school development plans share and build on strengths and that appropriate plans are in place to address areas of weakness.
- Ensure the area is given suitable coverage and prominence within the Trust board's strategic discussions and that appropriate resources are allocated.

Link Trustees for academy LGBs will:

- Keep up to date with progress and priorities at the school.
- Attend at least two LGB meetings per year (good schools) or more frequently (schools that are less than good). Link trustees will not have voting rights at the LGB.
- Feedback to the Board on the business of LGB meetings on significant issues arising.
- Attend any informal school events on an ad hoc basis to promote the trust to parents, local communities and other stakeholders.
- Ensure governors are providing sufficient challenge and support to school leaders in meetings.
- Support LGBs with identifying additional training needs or resources.
- Promote Chancery Trust to the LGB and answer any questions governors may have about the work of the Trust and feed these back as appropriate to the board.
- Feedback any observations on LGB agendas to the governance lead and/or clerk to ensure meetings have a strategic focus.
- Ensure the LGB and school operates in line with the Scheme of Delegation and Trust-level policies and complies with its statutory responsibilities.
