

Stars of the Week –14/2/2025

Reception:

- Alyssia for becoming a much more confident writer. You try very hard to “fred” your words and read the sentences that you have written carefully. Very, very well done!
- Alfie for becoming a thoughtful writer. You are working well to “fred” your words and read through the sentences carefully. Very well done!

Year 1:

- Theo for working so hard to push yourself in everything we do.
- Tallulah for always being a great friend and always trying your hardest at everything we do.

Year 2:

- Amelie for working hard and becoming an independent learner.
- Edward for working hard with improved focus.

Year 3:

- Ava for your brilliant work in maths this week. Your effort and determination is excellent.
- Hollie for the resilience and determination you have shown towards all of your lessons this week.

Year 4:

- Ruby for being a fantastic role model.
- Lola for a huge improvement in your resilience.

Year 5:

- Riley for super focus in maths and really pushing yourself to understand decimals.
- Myla for really trying to use super vocabulary in your writing.

Year 6:

- Bodhi for working hard in maths and English and showing greater improvement.
- Albie for superb reasoning in maths.

Head Teacher's Award:

- Henry and Symphony for your outstanding attitude towards all aspects of school life.