

Stars of the Week –7/3/2025

Reception:

- Oliver for trying very hard in drawing club – great pictures and some super writing. You are also making some super choices when you are with your friends – very well done!
- Rosie for being a magnificent member of our class. You try hard in all you do; you are a kind and thoughtful person and a good friend. Very well done!

Year 1:

- Alfie for having such a fabulous attitude to your learning and an infectious smile.
- Parker for your super loud voice in 'Read Write Inc'!

Year 2:

- Elliot for taking care and following instructions carefully.
- Zach for great subject knowledge and participation in Geography.

Year 3:

- Henry for giving 100% effort to all of your subjects.
- Lilly May for your fantastic participation during maths this week.

Year 4:

- Lola for excellent resilience in maths.
- Jack for being a supportive partner during buddy reading.

Year 5:

- Aoife-Belle and Betsy for showing real determination to break the 'maths codes' in our World Book Day maths session. Plus, excellent teamwork!

Year 6:

- Daniel and Hailey for always having a positive, resilient attitude to learning.

Head Teacher's Award:

- Ronnie, Reception, for your superb attitude towards all aspects of school life.
- Esme, Year 4, for your great enthusiasm on World Book Day.
