

The Loaves and Fishes

Wherever Jesus went big crowds followed.

Jesus and his disciples went across the lake on a boat.

But when they got to the other side, another crowd was waiting wanting to hear Jesus speak.

Jesus felt sorry for them and so began to teach them about God.

It started to get late and the crowd were feeling tired and hungry.

Jesus told the disciples they could give the crowd food.
But there were 5000 people! There wasn't enough food.

There was a boy in the crowd who had brought his own food.

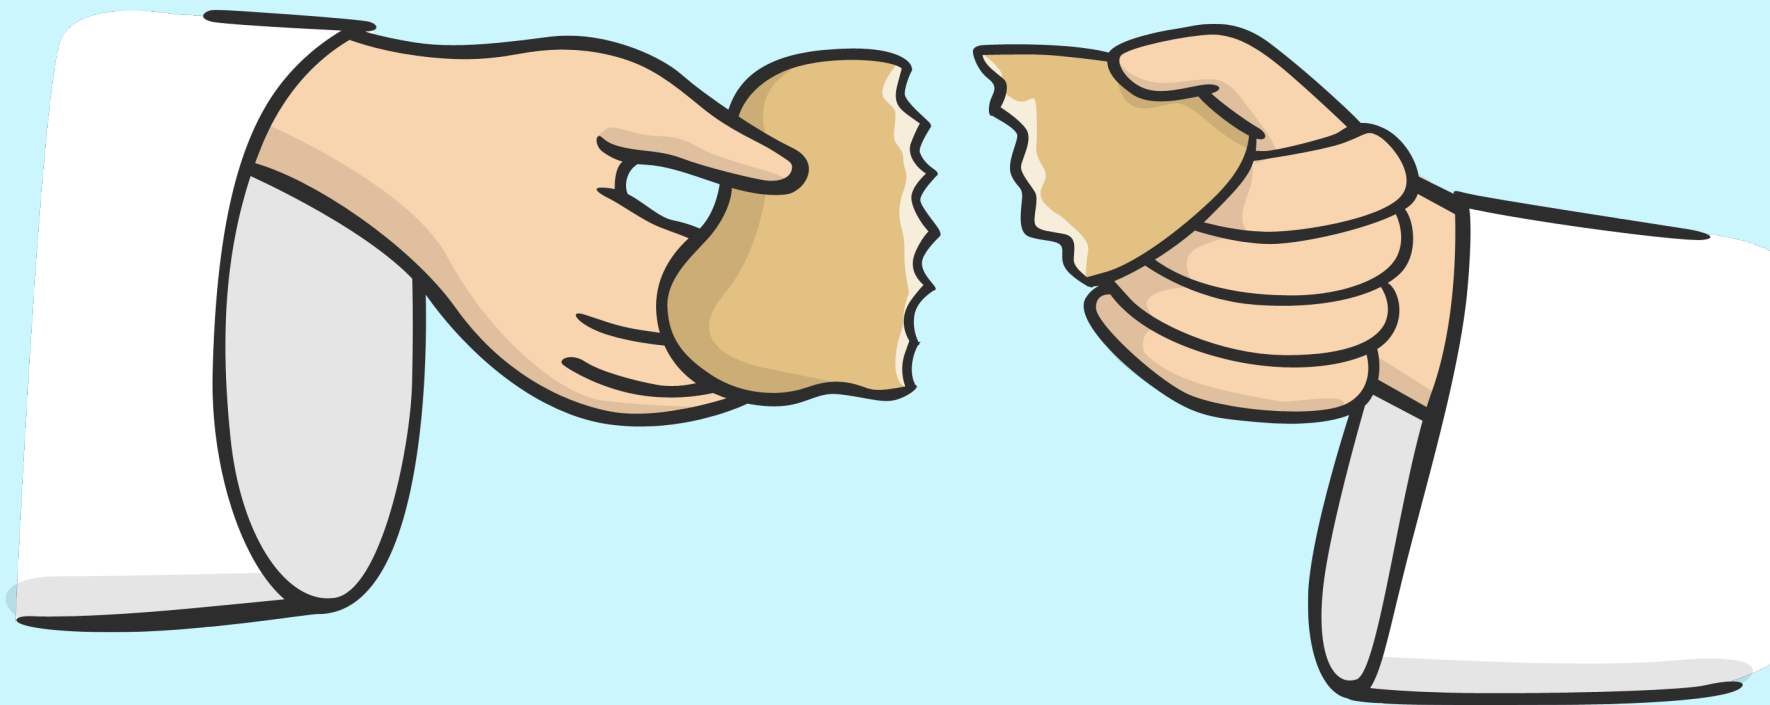

There were five loaves and two fishes.

Jesus had the crowd sit in groups of 50 and 100.

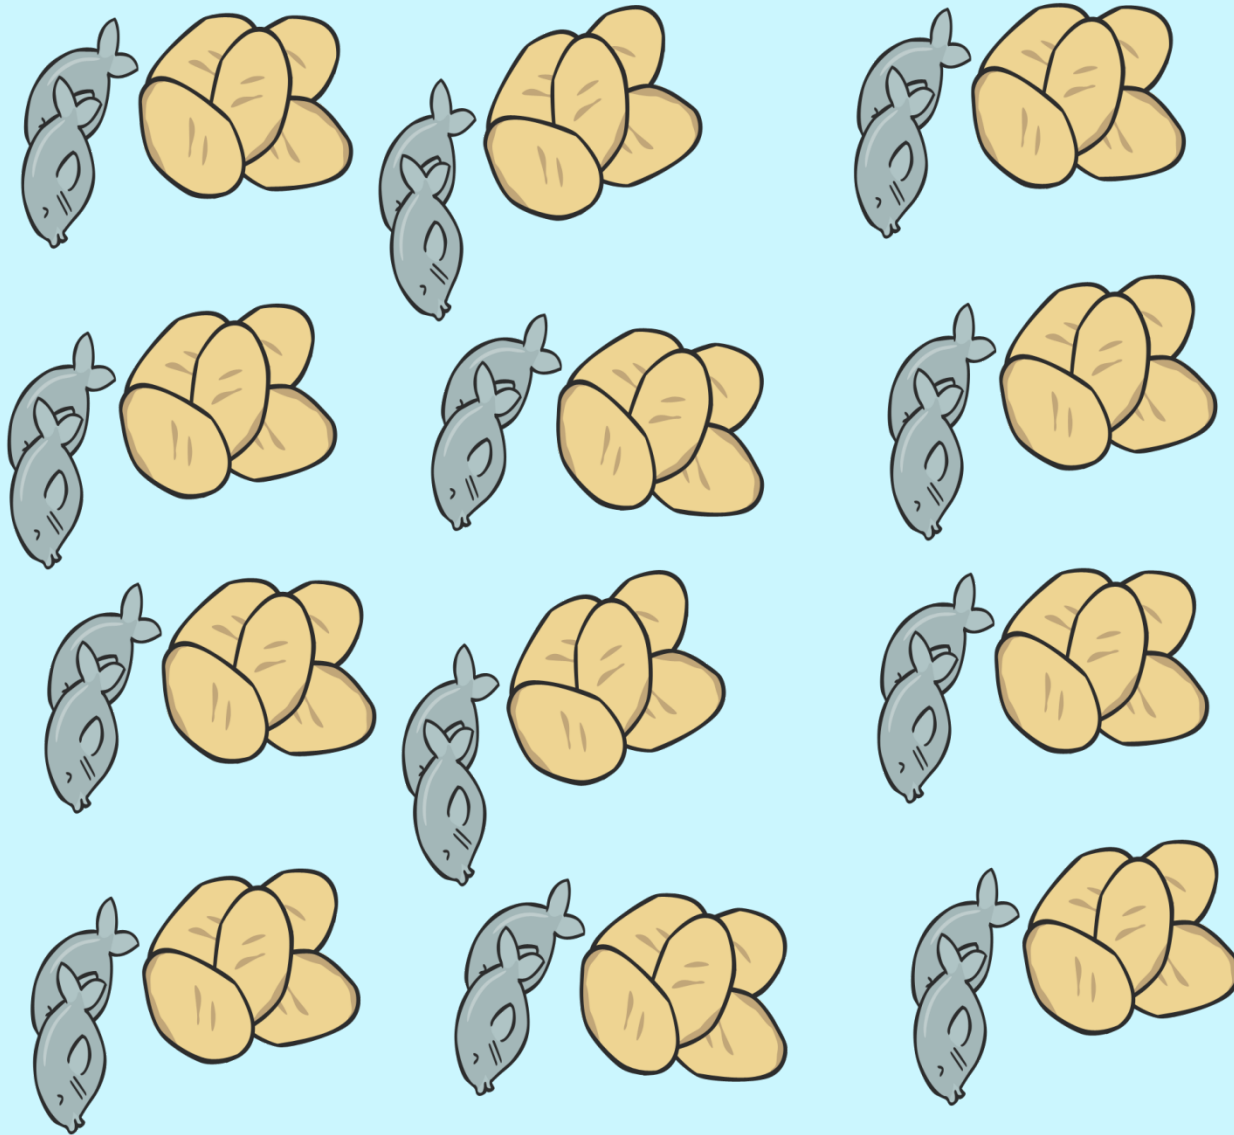

Jesus took the loaves and gave thanks to God.
Then he broke them and gave them to his disciples.

As the disciples handed out the bread it multiplied and made more bread. The same happened with the fish.

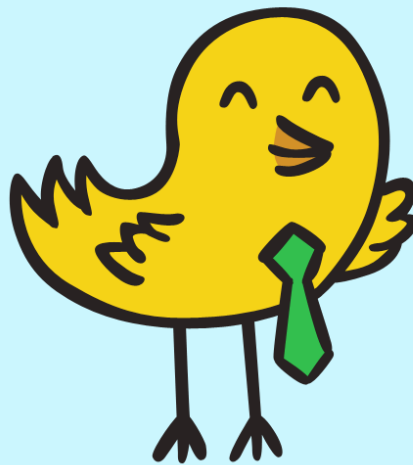

After everyone was fed, there were twelve baskets worth of food left!

The crowds were amazed.
They said “This man must be the Son of God!”
