Story map and plan

This task is a little trickier....
Can you use the sentence starters to write your own sentences?

Once my mate had laid the egg,	This morning,
As soon as she waddled off to the sea,	Carefully,
Slowly,	Steadily,
Luckily,	Fortunately,
Most of the time,	Before long,
Once we reached the bottom,	Eventually,
Sliding down the hill,	Excitedly,
As fast as lightning,	Suddenly,
Once things had quietened down,	Hungrily,
Delighted,	Quietly,
After what felt like forever,	Loudly,
	As quick as a flash,

Word bank

Can you remember the sequence of events? If we were in the classroom we would put them up on the board in order. If you need to, keep coming back to this to check the order of your recount. Today, please only focus on the first two parts of the recount. This will be our first paragraph.

1. My mate went to sea to hunt.
  2. I was left on the ice with the egg.
  3. I joined the huddle.
  4. We had to slide down a steep hill on our bellies.
  4. I heard a noise.
  5. The egg hatched.
  6. I had to keep it warm and feed it.
  7. Mum arrived and fed the chick.

WAGOLL

Our next piece of writing will be to recount when you, the male Emperor penguin, had to look after your egg and keep it safe.

What a day I have had!

Once my mate had laid her egg, she turned and waddled off into the sea. Off she went to hunt, leaving me stuck on the ice on my own with the most important job. I had to keep our precious egg safe and make sure that it is away from the cold, dangerous ice and the strong, blustery winds. As soon as she waddled off to the sea, I tucked our little egg up under my tummy in my brood patch. I felt so worried about looking after our little egg. So, there I was, stuck on the snow-covered ice with an egg on my feet! Can you imagine that? Standing still in the freezing cold keeping such a delicate object off the ice. What's more, there was nothing whatsoever to eat! Not one little fish. Would you like to go without breakfast, lunch, tea and supper for months at a time? It's not like I could go waddling off to the sea to hunt either! I couldn't leave my egg behind or take it with me so not only was I stuck, but I was starving hungry as well. I felt miserable.
